Joseph Castro, M.A, is the Director of Choral Studies at Fremont Christian School, an international Solist and Choral Conductor, Adjunct Professor at CSUEB, and Private Vocal Coach. Mr. Castro has traveled around the world performing and conducting in various places such as Prague, Salzburg, Vienna, Munich, Israel, and throughout the United States. In addition to having his private vocal studio, Mr. Castro is an active soloist and clinician throughout the Bay Area high school and community ensembles.

The East Bay Acapella Academy will immerse singers in a high quality vocal training and performance environment. You will learn various genres of music including contemporary acapella music, beatboxing, musical theater, and popular music. Basic through advanced vocal techniques will be taught along with performance style and practice to elevate your individual and collaborative skills. You will perform for your peers and fellow campers at the end of the session in a show stopping performance enhanced with choreography and movement. For additional questions, please feel free to contact Mr. Castro, jcastro@fremontchrisitan.com
